

Dah Sing Bank Statement on Fraudulent Internet Websites

Dah Sing Bank, Limited (“DSB”) would like to alert its customers to a suspicious fraudulent website with internet domain names dah.singinvestment.com. The website is NOT authorised by DSB.

DSB would like to advise that the said website have no affiliation or connection whatsoever with DSB and/or the Dah Sing Financial Group, nor any of its subsidiaries. DSB does not accept any responsibility for the website or the content thereof. DSB would like to stress that the operation of DSB’s official website and relevant online services is normal.

DSB would like to recommend customers to take the following precautionary actions to ensure they are connected to a valid DSB website:

- The official website of DSB is www.dahsing.com. Customers should access their e-Banking accounts by keying in the website addresses at the address bar of the browser, or bookmark the genuine website and use that function to access their DSB e-Banking accounts.
- Logging in to DSB’s e-Banking service using a Security Device can provide customers with extra protection in online transactions and minimise the risk of any unauthorised use of your DSB e-Banking account.

DSB has reported the case to the Hong Kong Monetary Authority. Any customer who has provided his or her personal information to the websites or has conducted any financial transactions through the websites should promptly call DSB e-Banking Security Incident Hotline at 3101 3111.
