Dah Sing Bank Statement on Fraudulent Social Media Account and Website

(Hong Kong, 22 April 2025) – Dah Sing Bank, Limited (the "Bank") has become aware today that fraudsters have created fraudulent social media account on WeChat named "清雲杨红霞" (the "fraudulent account"). The fraudulent account induces customers or members of the public to participate in loan/investment product promotions pretended to be offered by the Bank, with a web link which directs to a fraudulent website <http://118.107.15.100> (the "fraudulent website").

The Bank hereby confirms and clarifies that the fraudulent account, the fraudulent website and the platform operator(s) thereof have no connection with the Bank, its affiliates and any of its products and/or services. The Bank shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused by or in connection with the fraudulent account, the fraudulent website and/or the platform operator(s) thereof.

Customers and members of the public are advised to pay attention to the verification badge of any WeChat account to confirm the authenticity of such account and the identity of the account owner (please note that there is a blue tick at the end of the Bank's official WeChat account name). The Bank's official WeChat account is named "大新銀行香港". The Bank has no account with Douyin and Weibo. Please do not provide any personal and/or financial information to any suspicious social media accounts or website. The Bank's official website address is "www.dahsing.com". Customers and the public should check the URL from time to time, and look for the secure padlock icon in the address bar before entering any personal and/or financial information.

The Bank has reported the case to the Hong Kong Monetary Authority and the Hong Kong Police Force. Any customer or member of the public who has provided personal and/or financial information via the fraudulent account(s) and/or the fraudulent website should promptly call the Bank's Security Alert Hotline on 2828 8159 for assistance, as well as report the incident at the nearest police station, or contact the Anti-Deception Coordination Centre of the Hong Kong Police Force for assistance by calling the 24-hour "Anti-Scam Helpline 18222".

Overseas customers and members of the public who have fallen victim to the scam are advised to immediately report the incident to any local police station or contact the local anti-scam hotline (if available) for assistance.
