Dah Sing Bank Statement on Fraudulent Website

(Hong Kong, 22 September 2026) – Dah Sing Bank, Limited (the "Bank") has become aware today that fraudsters are operating the following fraudulent website using the Bank's brand without authorisation (the "fraudulent website"):

- hxxps://e-pay.com[.]hk

Customers and members of the public may be requested to share personal information on the fraudulent website.

The Bank hereby confirms and clarifies that the fraudulent website (including without limitation any request made to users displayed thereon) and the platform operator(s) thereof have no connection with the Bank and its affiliates. The Bank and its affiliates shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused by or in connection with the fraudulent website and the platform operator(s) thereof.

The Bank wishes to remind customers and the public that the Bank's official website address is www.dahsing.com. Customers and the public should always check the URL and look for the secure padlock icon in the address bar before entering any login ID, password and/or personal/financial information. Customers and members of the public are advised not to provide any login credentials or personal/financial information to and conduct any transactions on suspicious websites and/or mobile apps.

The Bank has reported the case to the Hong Kong Monetary Authority and the Hong Kong Police Force. Any customer or member of the public who has provided login credentials and/or personal/financial information or conducted any transaction via the fraudulent website should promptly call the Bank's Security Alert Hotline on 2828 8159 for assistance, as well as to report the case at the nearest police station, or contact the Anti-Deception Coordination Centre of the Hong Kong Police Force for assistance by calling the 24-hour "Anti-Scam Helpline 18222".

Overseas customers and members of the public who have fallen victim to the scam are advised to immediately report the case to any local police station or contact the local anti-scam hotline (if available) for assistance.
